ALMA MATER

We hail thee Graham High School
To thee we sing our praise
To honor and be loyal
In this pledge our voices raise.
You give us faith and courage
To thee we will be true
Our banner waves for Graham High
Forever true to you.

We are the Graham Falcons,
Fighting all the way
We are the Graham Falcons
This will be our day.

MYSTERY IN THE LIBRARY

SCHOOL DAYS

You say that your school days are over?
Why lad! they have only just begun;
Go forth and count the sands of the strand,
Or look on the blazing sun.

When its last red ray shall tremble
At Father Time's caress;
The Master, still, will be keeping school,
'Twill be only the first recess.

When the earth is worn to its axis,
And when all the seven seas
Are numbered among the things that were:
You are still in your A.B.C.'s.

For so long as Heaven and Nature
Remain with an unsolved rule,
And God has a truth that is unrevealed;
Why lad! you are still in school.
